Professional Profile

Train driver with strong time management skills, I obtained the Train Driver license and I have gained many years of experience in driving traction vehicles, developing skills in technical assessment and interventions on vehicles or towed material, including particular braking conditions applicable to lines with steep slopes. Excellent ability to integrate into new work organizations and aptitude for teamwork.

Skills and Expertise

During my years of work I have gained a great experience of the main railway transport systems. I have faced various critical issues deriving from breakdowns of the traction vehicles on which I travel and those deriving from problems on the railway network.

As a result, I developed strong problem solving and decision making skills.

I was elected R.S.U. and I also acquired a good understanding of employment contracts.

I also acquired knowledge in the sports field by embarking on a career as a competitive athlete, achieving various national and international titles.

I have also developed a good knowledge of English and Spanish thanks to my numerous international travels.

Work and Professional experience

Train Driver

TRENITALIA S.P.A. , impianto condotta A.V. , Naples

July 2006 - today

The Train Driver is responsible for driving the trains through the daily interaction with innovative and highly technological equipment.

The Train Driver is also responsible for:

- the transport of people/goods, guaranteeing a safe, punctual and comfortable service in full compliance with the rules and procedures;
- of train control and related checks before departure and during the run of the condition of the vehicle, promptly reporting any critical issues and intervening to resolve them according to safety procedures.

Call Center Operator

DATITALIA site in Naples

October 2005 - June 2006

I worked as a call center operator taking care of the commercial part for a telephone company (WIND-INFOSTRADA).

The work was carried out in part-time shifts during which I sponsored the contracts in force to the clients through a script provided and took care of the subsequent formalization and signing.

Education and Training

Higher Diploma, Computer Expert, 2005

i.t.i.s Galileo Ferraris of Naples

I graduated with a Diploma of Computer Expert with a vote of 97/100 in the year 2005.

I then attended a course for the creation and management of LAN/WAN networks at Microsoft, then I subsequently enrolled in the Faculty of Computer Engineering at the "Federico Secondo" University of Naples.

In my first year of University I took 6 of the 8 exams scheduled, I subsequently abandoned my studies after being hired as a Train Driver.
